

Policy of the Good Parliament renewed, Oct. 1377	PAGE 78
John of Gaunt partially recovers power, Feb. 1378	75
Degradation of the Papacy; Avignon	75
Wycliffe's popularity in 1377	80
Failure of the Papal attack on Wycliffe, March 1378	85
Outrage in "Westminster Abbey, 1378	87
Question of Sanctuary; Wycliffe and the Parliament of Gloucester, Oct. 1378	92
Maladministration and discontent 1379-80	98-103

CHAPTER IV

RELIGION

The Church in the Age of Wycliffe	104
The Bishops	106
"Ecclesiastical Courts; their corruption	112
Foreigners in English benefices; simony	117
Appropriation and non-residence	121
Parsons and their grievances	123
The Pulpit and the Bible in the Fourteenth Century	127
Medieval ideas of pardon for sin	131
Pilgrimage	133
Sale of pardons and charms; the Pope and Bishops responsible	135
Corruption of the Confessional	139
Wycliffe's new theory of absolution	141-2

CHAPTER V

RELIGION

(continued)

The friars; their Influence	143
The unbeneficed clergy; their employments	158
The monks; their isolation	156
Antagonism of the towns to religious bodies	168
The way prepared for Henry the Eighth	104
Danger of the ecclesiastical power to society	167
Wycliffe and his new religion	169-82

CHAPTER VI

THE PEASANTS' MISERY OF 1381

The history of labour	183
The Manorial system; its decay	184
The Black Death and the Statutes of Labourers	187